Tuition

Non-advanced students only

45 minutes: $100

60 minutes: $120

Advanced students

60 minutes: $130

*How do you know if the student is advanced?

Students who are able to play the violin at concerto level or above are advanced students. An example would be, playing one movement of Mozart's Violin Concerto No.3 or Haydn's Violin Concerto in C or G without big problems when performing. Alternatively, students sign up for advanced lessons when preparing for competitions or orchestra auditions requiring focus on a specific work.

Studio Recitals

- The studio concert is scheduled twice a year. The first concert is in May and the second concert is in December. The rules are not final and are subject to change at any time depending on the circumstances and the degree of cooperation.
- Students playing with a pianist will be expected to pay the pianist separately for rehearsal lessons. Prices vary depending on the pianist.
- Additionally, on the day of the concert, students are required to pay for any additional expenses up to but no more than $100.

Competitions & Auditions

- Advanced students are expected to start learning new music pieces at least 2 - 3 months before the competitions and auditions to be technically and musically ready.
  - Typically, orchestra audition dates are in April. Seating auditions happen in August before the orchestra's start date. Often, there are extra opening auditions in January.
  - Competitions typically range from February- March or October - November.
  - Preparation for All-State Orchestra for junior high to high school starts in July.
